STROPHE

We`re like the wind, know how to rise and how to fall, our bondage is strong, our commitment`s like a song, that floats through the air, combining waves to stories forming never ending force, our minds moving fast, directing fingers arms and feet, to cut like a knife through all resistance that we meet a combi-nation of will and body rolling with speed to blow away all madness
